

WHITE HOUSE --- HISTORY

CALL FOR PAPERS

White House History (ISSN 0748-8114) is published twice each year and features articles on the historic White House, especially those that relate to the building itself, its uses, and life as lived there through the years. We are currently accepting abstracts for the following article topics:

Abstracts due APRIL 1, 2008

Issue: "Special Spaces"

Topics:

John F. Kennedy's Swimming Pool
Ulysses S. Grant's Pool Room
Nancy Reagan's Beauty Parlor
Tad Lincoln's Theater
The Map Room
Harry S. Truman's Broadcast Room
The Silver Vault

The Monroe Room
The Lincoln Study
Thomas Jefferson's Office
Andrew Jackson's Shower Bath
Edith Roosevelt's China Room
Rutherford B. Hayes's "Baby Houses"
Bomb Shelters

Authors interested in submitting an article are asked to complete an Abstract Submission Form. To request the form, contact books@whha.org.

The editor will review abstracts and contact the authors of topics selected for inclusion in each issue. Production schedules will be set upon finalization of the contents. Authors will be given a deadline for submission of the completed article which will be 8 to 12 months after the deadline for abstracts.

Topics for other issues may include presidential biography; first family biography; and studies of documentary letters, journals, diaries, and illustrations that relate to the White House.

The substance of proposed articles should not have been published elsewhere.

For more information about the White House Historical Association and past issues of White House History visit www.whitehousehistory.org.

The White House Historical Association is a nonprofit organization, chartered on November 3, 1961, to enhance the understanding, appreciation, and enjoyment of the historic White House. Income from the sale of White House History and all of the Association's books and guides is returned to the publications program and is used as well to acquire historical furnishings and memorabilia for the White House.